SEABREEZE, Mar. 3.—The pupils of the Seabreeze school, and especially the High School, were greatly disappointed in being prevented by the rain from attending the lecture on bird life at the Palmetto embankment yesterday afternoon by Herbert K. Job, naturalist. Many of the students are much interested in Florida birds.

An oyster bake in Smoky Hollow was enjoyed Monday evening by the following party of friends: Dr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Beebe, Miss Bennett Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gillett and Mrs. C. K. Gillett. The oysters were extra fine specimens and the roasting was done to the last turn of fine culinary art. The moonlight, and the balmy air laden with a faint hint of orange blossom, made a perfect evening to friends who were to part on the morrow. The roast was a farewell event to Dr. and Mrs. Fuller, who left Tuesday for Chicago.

R. T. Butler returned Sunday night from Ocala, where he was looking after business interests.

Mrs. Hesser, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss and Mr. Erreger "sprinkled" up to No. 9 and back in Mr. Erreger's worthy boat Monday afternoon. They left here after two o'clock and were home by seven, and still had time to enjoy a pleasant visit to the door.

Miss Phillips is a fine musician and the guests at Miss Russell's are delighted to her for many a pleasant hour.

The H. G. Wilson Co. have just sold a river lot belonging to Mrs. A. W. Powers to the Harris brothers, who are spending the winter at Daytona Beach.

Miss Bell, Little, of Fredericksburg, Va., and nephew W. L. Seddon, chief engineer of the Seaboard Air Line, will arrive Thursday on a visit to Col. and Mrs. Fleet and family on Ocean boulevard. Miss Seddon is Mrs. Fleet's brother and Miss Little her aunt.

Mr. Orth leaves today for Erie, Pa., where he is summoned by business interests.

Perils of Our Dwelling Houses. The scholars in one of the Fuchow Chinese schools were recently desired to write an essay in English on the subject of "Which Are the Healthiest, Chinese or Foreign Dwelling Houses?" One young man "spoke" about the matter with his "friends," and they said that the "Chinese building is much better than foreigners." This, he adds, was the "seasense of their debate."

The foreign building is too high and coverious and always built on the top of the hill. In the summer time it receives the most heat from the sun. The people who live in it is the same as putting in the stove, but in winter it is fully filled by the sharp air which cut the faces of whom living in it. So that the foreigner is compelled to put themselves on fire. The fire would do our bodies harm. As we were prepared our dinner; we put the beef on the fire by and by the beef dry in that case the of course man die too."—London Telegraph.

J. J. Bannon, of Savannah, Ga., a friend of R. T. McFadden, of this city, is in Daytona for a few days. Mr. Bannon had heard so much of the beauty of Daytona that he felt compelled, he says, to see it for himself. He stopped at St. Augustine on the way down and while he thinks it a very pretty place he says it cannot compare with Daytona in his estimation. He hopes to return here next winter for a more prolonged visit.

A Odorous Disinfectant.

If one objects to the odor of carbolic acid, he may use for the plumbing an odorous disinfectant prepared as follows. Dissolve half a pound of permanganate of potash in four gallons of water and pour this carefully down the pipes. This solution, if allowed to stand in bowls or basins, will stain them purple. The stains may be removed with a weak solution of oxalic acid. The acid must be rinsed off immediately after it has been used.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe
chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goob-ber" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting further, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are afame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a wonder-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and eel and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with ethereal drapes, but as you move along and east an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

chose to give to Daytona the most admirable,
the most picturesque natural

throws down the gauntlet to the world.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out-Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Doten, of Portland, Maine, who arrived Monday and are guests of The Bennett, are not strangers to Daytonians, having spent several years at The Parkinson house. They are returning to Dayton after an interval of several years finding, they generally say, that there is nothing to equal it elsewhere.

throws down the gauntlet to the world.

An Dead Bird.

Samuel Butler, the witty but eccentric author of "Erewhon," which means "Nowhere," and of many other remarkable and suggestive books, is now more read than during his lifetime.
He died in 1902. In one of his notebooks he tells this incident, which must have amused the great Charles Darwin:

"Frank Darwin told me his father was once standing near the hippopotamus cage when a little boy and girl aged four and five, came up. The hippopotamus shut his eyes for a minute.
"That bird's dead," said the little girl. "Come along."

Her Lucky Number.

The byways as well as the highways of church life furnish much in the way of wit and humor. What, for instance, could be more mirth provoking than the naive confession of the cook of a London vicar who, being allowed to choose a hymn for the family prayer, was complimented on her choice by the vicar's wife?

"Fresh! I'm a bunny ready to come out
further, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

What's the trouble?" was whispered in English anxiously to his friend on the platform.
